"Architecture has the potential to nurture and extend our sense of who we are as individuals, community or nation by helping us find our relationship to our world—social, physical and spiritual."
—Gregory Burgess, Architect, 1999

Acknowledgement of First Peoples

We acknowledge the Traditional Custodians who have walked upon and cared for the lands on which we live and work for thousands of years. We pay our respects to Elders past, present and future. # Welcome from the Master

It is a great pleasure to introduce you to the community and work of Catholic Theological College, Melbourne, a college of the University of Divinity.

Catholic Theological College provides theological and pastoral education for anyone seeking to deepen their knowledge of the Catholic tradition and to contribute in the Church's pastoral mission. It is a community of learning and research in a wide range of fields associated with the Christian faith, seeking to critically engage the sources of Christianity and to creatively respond to the hopes and needs of our contemporary world.

The COVID-19 pandemic has changed the way we live as individuals, as families, as faith communities and as societies. It has changed the way we work and socialise, and of course the way we study. CTC is responding to this emerging situation, with COVID-Safe face to face learning environments and options for online and blended learning in some courses.

You may wish to audit a few lectures for personal interest, participate in professional development offerings, undertake undergraduate or postgraduate awards, or pursue higher research in master's or doctoral degrees.

Graduates of the College will use their knowledge and skills in interpreting Christian texts and traditions, pastoral care and spirituality to enhance their employment in ministry, education, health, welfare and chaplaincy.

CTC faculty are highly qualified and internationally recognised in their fields; many are actively involved in the pastoral life of the Church as ministers, teachers and preachers, which greatly enriches the perspective they bring to their scholarly work.

At the heart of CTC is the Daniel Mannix Library, which continues to add new digital and print resources to a collection that has been built up over more than ninety years.

As you explore this prospectus, you will find helpful information and contact details. I hope that you will also hear an invitation to join us at CTC, to deepen your understanding of Christian faith and ministry.

Studying Philosophy will confront you with perennial questions about the human person, the world and God that have fascinated great thinkers for over 3,000 years. It will enable you to engage in rational enquiry and reflection both on the Christian tradition and on contemporary issues that confront us in our secular world.

The discipline of Biblical Studies is concerned with the Word of God as the inspired and normative foundation of the Christian faith. The Bible contains the story of divine revelation in human history. To help students discover the enduring relevance of biblical texts, CTC offers a range of units for study towards awards or for personal development.

St Anselm of Canterbury described theology as “faith seeking understanding.” Systematic Theology studies the great mysteries of the Christian faith, leading us to an ever-deeper appreciation and understanding of the person of Christ.

Christians believe they are called and enlivened by the Spirit of Christ. Church History studies how people have sought to put their Christian beliefs into practice and is therefore concerned with spirituality as much as theology.

"I feel privileged to be studying at CTC. I returned to study as a mature age student. The atmosphere is so welcoming, the building is beautiful, and its location perfect. I have found the academic standard and lecturers to be first rate and I am really learning so much. We have an excellent library and a spacious modern student lounge. During my time here, I have discerned a vocation of pastoral care, and have been able to pursue it within the context of my Theology Degree. I can engage in some practical Clinical Pastoral Education units and other supporting units that have me job ready at the end of my degree."

Spirituality seeks to appreciate how the Spirit enlivens the Christian. In an age when spirituality is often understood as something eclectic and individualist, unrelated to the Church, the study of Spirituality at CTC opens some of the great treasures of the Christian tradition.

Moral Theology is the area of theology that explores questions about the implications of Christian faith for our lives. It offers an opportunity to reflect critically on the challenges of Christian life and considers moral conscience, the social teaching of the Church, bioethics and human sexuality.

The discipline of Pastoral Studies is concerned with applying theological studies to teaching and ministry, and is particularly suited for students who are involved in or preparing for pastoral ministry.

Liturgy has been defined as the “source and summit” of all the Church’s activity. The study of Liturgy enables students to have deeper insight into the liturgical and sacramental rituals that help manifest the people of God as the Church, the body of Christ.

Mannix Library

The Mannix Library was founded in 1923 as part of Corpus Christi College—the provincial seminary for the Catholic dioceses of Victoria and Tasmania. The seminary and the library were located at various times at Werribee, Glen Waverley and Clayton. When Catholic Theological College was established in 1972, library services were extended to staff and students of CTC. In 1999, the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne assumed responsibility for funding the library, which was renamed the Mannix Library and relocated from Clayton to its current site in East Melbourne.

Today, Mannix Library exists primarily to serve the needs of CTC staff and students. The library also welcomes members from the wider University of Divinity community and provides library services to subscribed members of the general public. The Library provides access to more than 150,000 book and journal volumes, as well as a range of online resources. In addition to the main library facility, there is also a large compactus area on the ground floor, where historical materials and rarely used items are held. These items are available on request. In 2019, a new Special Collections Room was built within the main library, to house and showcase rare materials and other items of special interest.

Safeguarding

In 2021 CTC offers a practical response towards building a safe church.

DP2015C/3015C/8015C Pastoral Leadership for a Safe Church

The unit investigates the context, issues and theological underpinning relating to the safeguarding of Children and at-risk adults in the Church. It forms students as reflective pastoral leaders responsive to the causes and life-long impact of abuse and able to identify the power structures that may enable it. It also develops the capacities to implement and apply policies to evaluate risk factors and create a culture of safety and promote prevention and inclusion within a variety of Church and church-related settings. Assessment will include applying the learning to the student's own area of work and ministry

Online on Zoom over 4 Saturdays

6, 20 March; 24 April; 15/ May: 10am - 4.30pm

Consider a Graduate Certificate

The unit complements two foundational units in pastoral studies at CTC:

DP8001C Pastoral Studies I: A Theory of Pastoral Practice; and DP8002C Pastoral Studies II: Pastoral Care and Spiritual Leadership.

Together these form a suite of three units in pastoral studies which can complete a Graduate Certificate in Divinity.

Fees

Postgraduate: $2,640 per 24-point unit

Audit: $650 per unit

Single unit for credit: $2,640 per unit

FEE-HELP

Students who are Australian citizens or hold a permanent humanitarian visa may pay their tuition fees by FEE-HELP. See the FEE-HELP information section on our website.
