

Teaching meditation in the classroom - free information session

Please join us for a free online information session for the Graduate Certificate in Teaching Meditation

The Graduate Certificate in Teaching Meditation is for those seeking to learn the methods and skills of teaching meditation and prayer in the primary and secondary classroom. The course focuses on the personal practice and benefits of meditative prayer, and facilitation and discernment approaches allowing students to apply their learning in their own context.

The Graduate Certificate in Teaching Meditation:

- is supported by MACS (Melbourne Archdiocese Catholic Schools) as a sponsored area of study, and counts towards accreditation to teach in a Catholic school
- engages with the findings of the Enhancing Catholic School Identity (ECSI) project
- helps participants navigate the interface between mindfulness, wellbeing and Christian meditation
- fulfils the membership requirements for Meditation Australia
- may be completed in one year or over a longer period.

This session will outline the requirements and outcomes of the course which provides the skills for teaching meditation and prayer in the primary and secondary classroom.

DATE & TIME: 12 October: 7.00pm – 7.30pm
